

THE FALLS

SAIGON & KABUL

IN COMPARATIVE PERSPECTIVE

THURSDAY, SEPT. 2, 2021
3:45-5 P.M.
SDSU CAMPUS,
WEST COMMONS 220

This roundtable discussion featuring three world-renowned experts will comparatively assess the end of America's wars in Vietnam (1975) and Afghanistan (2021). It will also explore actual and potential global fallouts of the U.S. withdrawal from Afghanistan, including refugee crises, based on past experiences in Vietnam and the rest of Indochina.

FEATURED SPEAKERS

- Grace Cheng, Ph.D., Director of the Center for Human Rights, SDSU
- Gregory Daddis, Ph.D., USS Midway Chair in Modern U.S. Military History, SDSU
- Pierre Asselin, Ph.D., Dwight E. Stanford Chair in U.S. Foreign Relations, SDSU

A Q&A session will follow the discussion.

All are welcome.

THIS EVENT IS JOINTLY SPONSORED BY SDSU'S
CENTER FOR HUMAN RIGHTS, CENTER FOR WAR
& SOCIETY, AND DWIGHT E. STANFORD
ENDOWMENT.

For more information contact
Professor Pierre Asselin at passelin@sdsu.edu.